SECOND PETER: THINGS WE NEED TO BE REMINDED OF

TAKING IT IN

1. In the Appendix of this workbook is a copy of 2 Peter printed double-spaced. These are your Observation Worksheets. Use these Observation Worksheets for your reading.

Read through 2 Peter looking for the author's purpose in writing. When you discover his reason for writing, write it down.

2. Hey! Guess what? We are going to read 2 Peter again! Repeated reading is a sure way to become familiar with the content of a book.

This time read it one chapter at a time. When you finish a chapter, write down the main theme or primary subject covered in that chapter. Then move on to the next chapter.

LIVING
IT OUT

1. Read through 2 Peter again, Beloved; but this time read it as a personal letter (which it is) from God to you through His servant Peter. As you read, ask God to quicken His Word to you in an intimate way. Then, write down those things that He seems to be speaking to your heart through Peter.

2. Now write out a prayer, a poem, or a song to the Lord in the light of what He has said. Beloved, please know it is for a purpose. Exercises like this will knit your heart to God's.
