HEBREWS — THE BOOK THAT KEEPS YOU FROM DRIFTING!

Hebrews is the book to hold you and keep you from drifting away when the strong undercurrents of life seek to pull you from your moorings and cast you upon a turbulent ocean of despair.

Our prayer for you, Beloved, is that your faith may be matured beyond your comprehension.

TAKING IT IN

Chapter by chapter, read through the Observation Worksheets of Hebrews, located in the Appendix.

1. Mark in a distinctive way each use of the words “priest” and/or “priesthood,” “high priest,” and “great high priest.”
2. As you finish reading each chapter, record what you learn about priests and the priesthood and what you learn about Jesus as your great high priest in the appropriate columns on the chart, “The Priesthood and Jesus.” (We have provided several of these charts for you at the end of your lesson, so you have plenty of space.) As you record your information on your chart, note the chapter and verse from which you gleaned your information.
3. What is Hebrews called in Hebrews 13:22? This is the author’s purpose for writing Hebrews.

LIVING IT OUT

Review your chart, and in the third column record how these truths about Jesus as your high priest can be practically applied to your own life.
